U.S. Loses Six Jets To Hanoi Defense Force

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. losses this week in the air war against North Vietnam rose to 12 planes and 18 fliers Wednesday as Communist MIGs and ground batteries downed six more American jets, the U.S. Command announced.

American pilots shot down two Communist MIGs in the fourth straight day of raids into the heavily defended Communist heartland around Hanoi. A third MIG was hit and probably downed, the U.S. Command said.

One flier was rescued and 10 were missing. On Monday, when six other American planes were downed, the command said, two fliers were rescued and eight were listed as missing.

Returning pilots reported spectacular destruction in choked rail yards around Hanoi. Although the ground war remained generally quiet, Communist terror and sabotage was on the rise. Military authorities reported a train blown from the tracks near Saigon and two buses blown up by mines near Hue. The explosions killed 12 civilians and wounded eight.

The bloody increase in terrorism as the Viet Cong tries to sabotage the Sept. 3 presidential elections was emphasized by an announcement that terrorists killed 167 civilians last week, nearly three times the 64 killed the week before, wounded 252 and kidnapped 126.

The U.S. Command reported 108 Americans died in combat last week and 883 were wounded compared with 82 killed, 748 wounded and nine missing the week before.

Communist losses also increased, from 1,328 killed to 1,496, while South Vietnamese casualties were 172 dead, 538 wounded and five missing, less than the previous week's total of 283 killed, 663 wounded and 62 missing.

The continued heavy raids against the Hanoi area reflected the U.S. Command's determination to pound North Vietnam as hard as possible while favorable weather continues. However, the mounting raids have brought the North Vietnamese air force out in strength, and Red ground gunners are sending up blanket barrages of conventional fire and Soviet-built missiles.

Two of the U. S. planes lost Wednesday were the F4 Phantoms, considered the hottest American jets flying. They were downed by missiles from their Red counterparts, MIG21s.

U. S. headquarters reported seven aerial dogfights in the Hanoi area Wednesday and other MIGs sighted indicating a maximum effort by the North Vietnamese air force, which U. S. intelligence officers estimate numbers about 80 combat-ready jets.

Hoffa Denied Fraud Retrial

CHICAGO (AP) — James R. Hoffa, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters union, was returned to his Lewisburg, Pa., federal prison cell Wednesday after a judge ruled he is not entitled to a retrial on fraud and conspiracy charges.

The Supreme Court ordered a U.S. District Court hearing to determine if the government had used illegally obtained wiretap evidence when it successfully prosecuted Hoffa and five others in Chicago in 1964. They were charged with fraud and conspiracy in diverting funds from a multi-million-dollar Teamsters Pension Fund.

At the conclusion of the hearing Tuesday, Judge Richard B. Austin said, "It is the opinion of the court that the government learned nothing new from these overheardings of Dec. 2, 1963, or other overheardings that have been referred to." Judge Austin presided over the 1964 trial, in which Hoffa was sentenced to five years in prison and fined $10,000.

Judge Austin said he would prepare findings of fact and conclusions for Sept. 11, at which time he would again impose sentence on the six defendants. He ordered Hoffa returned to Lewisburg, where Hoffa is serving an eight-year term for jury tampering.

LBJ Lambasts Poverty Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A secret Johnson administration memorandum attacking sharply the $5.2 billion antipoverty bill drafted by a Senate Labor subcommittee is causing a furor among Labor Committee Democrats.

The memorandum demands: —Removal of a special $3 billion emergency job program for slum dwellers attached to the bill by subcommittee Chairman Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa.

—Detention of a requirement that the Office of Economic Opportunity disclose the projected five-year cost of the antipoverty program. The memo said "this would create political problems for the administration in an election year."

—Scrapping of a special $105 million item to finance a slum job program backed by Sens. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y. The memo said "this will invite slashing amendments on the floor and will seriously affect passage of the legislation."

Rap At Guard Called Untrue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman F. Edward Hebert of a House Armed Services subcommittee accused the President's Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders Wednesday of "indicting the National Guard without one scintilla of evidence."

As one of its first recommendations after being appointed following the Detroit riots, the commission called for an Army review of the qualifications and performances of National Guard officers.

Hebert, a Louisiana Democrat presiding over a hearing on the Guard's role in riot control, said the commission was unqualified to make such a recommendation. He also criticized the Army for promptly appointing a review board to carry it out.

But Rep. Lucien N. Nedzi, D-Mich., who represents part of Detroit, said: "I don't care if Mao Tse-Tung made the recommendations, if they make sense the Department of Defense should be commended for carrying them out. And I think these

UAW's Skilled May Reject Pact

DETROIT (AP) — Union and company negotiators pondered today the portent of a demonstration carried out Wednesday by hundreds of skilled tradesmen in defiance of the wishes of the leadership of their United Auto Workers Union.

In another development, the UAW announced that strike vote tallies thus far show rank and file members voting 97 per cent in favor of a strike if the union leaders deem it necessary.

The figure reflects the results from the first 42,000 UAW members to report their votes. The union has 650,000 members at the Big Three automakers. All-strike vote results are due at union headquarters Friday.

The demonstration at Ford Motor Co. emphasized an oft-asked question: whether the union can win a sufficiently high wage increase to keep skilled tradesmen from voting any new contract at either General Motors, Ford or Chrysler.

Under a 1966 change in its constitution, the UAW permits skilled and production workers to vote separately on contract ratification. Both must approve a pact to make it binding.

Chanting "One, two, three, four—we want a dollar more," the tradesmen ended more than five hours of demonstrating by storming up and down the entrance ramp past front doors of Ford headquarters.

Many carried placards supporting a previously announced goal of skilled tradesmen to win a $1-an-hour increase yearly over the life of any new contract with the Big Three automakers.

Other placards left no doubt the aim was to put pressure on the UAW management as well as that of the companies. UAW demands, laid out on bargaining tables when new contract negotiations began more than six weeks ago, call for a "substantial" wage boost for all and a "substantial" extra amount for skilled tradesmen.

Louis G. Seaton, GM vice president — personnel, said Wednesday that "the most conservative estimates" his company had been able to put together indicated the union's new wage benefit demands would total $4 an hour.

Seaton told newsmen a company counteroffer, which will be made Monday or Tuesday, will not include as much as $1 an hour extra for skilled tradesmen. He declined to say what might be offered in this or any other economic area.

Production workers outnumber skilled tradesmen by about 7 to 1 in the UAW's 650,000 workers at Big Three plants. Current three-year contracts at the Big Three expire 18 days from now.

UFO's Sighted At Ontonagon

ONTONAGON (AP) — Formations of objects described as "bright silvery discs" have been reported sighted in the skies west of Ontonagon the past two days.

The Ontonagon County Sheriff's Department said today it has received at least six reports of sightings in groups ranging from three to seven in formations.

Others receiving similar reports included the Houghton County Sheriff's Department and the Hancock Police Department in Houghton County.

The Federal Aviation Agency at the Houghton County Memorial Airport said an Air Canada aircraft flying northwest of Houghton reported a similar sighting of an object above the plane.

Warren M. Christopher, new U. S. deputy attorney general, said the riots lie in the nation's overwhelmingly white suburbs.

Young Negroes from Harlem, Washington and Tampa, Fla., dominated the racial scene Wednesday as quiet continued in the nation's cities. New Haven, Conn., saw only scattered incidents mar an otherwise peaceful night.

Mobile police patrols enforced an 11 p.m. curfew in New Haven, making the first time since Sunday the curfew hour had been later than 8 p.m. Police reported a reduced number of arrests.

The Senate Judiciary Committee turned Wednesday to Negro youths in an attempt to find out what they want and how looting, burning and rioting can be prevented.

Schools Urged To Open, Talk Later

U.S. To Send Observers To Viet Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters and critics of the Vietnam war are among 20 prominent Americans President Johnson is sending to observe South Vietnam's presidential election.

The observers — including clergymen, labor leaders, businessmen and politicians — who commented said they will arrive in South Vietnam with open minds and report what they see openly and frankly.

The U. S. delegation, chosen in response to an invitation by the South Vietnamese government, leaves Monday aboard a U. S. military plane and returns about Sept. 6. Expenses will be paid by the government. The voting is Sept. 3.

The delegation's selection comes less than two weeks after congressional leaders rejected an invitation to send official poll watchers on the grounds it might leave the United States open to charges by the losers of rigging the election.

In Saigon, the American acceptance was welcomed by Tran Van Do, South Vietnamese foreign minister. He said the governments of Japan, New Zealand, Greece, Belgium, the Philippines, and Laos also will send observers.

John S. Knight, publisher of Knight newspapers, said he doesn't know why Johnson selected him to make the trip because he has opposed American involvement in Vietnam since 1954. "I'll see as much as possible about what is going on then report it," he said.

but said the suburbanites aren't likely to help right now.

He predicted they would not now accept closer ties with the Negro inner city neighborhoods that might help alleviate big city problems but said suburbanites eventually will "overcome fear and prejudice."

A spokesman for the real estate industry contended in Washington that the drive for open housing has hindered attempts to improve housing for the urban poor. Alan L. Emilen, a director of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, told the Senate Banking subcommittee those attempts have bogged down "by identifying these programs with the goal of residential integration."

But representatives of three major religions and labor supported open-housing legislation as a sound base for attacking discrimination in housing.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., told a union gathering in New York that a "legacy of past indifference" has caused America to become embroiled in crises at home and abroad.

"We have rebuilt our cities with gleaming stores and new housing, but we have destroyed the neighborhoods of the poor and imprisoned them in ghettos," he said.

BULLETIN
LANSING (AP) — A top school official today said Gov. George Romney is "talking out of both sides of his mouth" in refusing to open the October special legislative session to consideration of more money for school districts.

"He has admitted there is an educational crisis," said Walter Averill Jr., of Saginaw, president of the Michigan Association of School Boards. "It is his responsibility to make this call."

LANSING (AP) — Within hours of a report that 221 school districts have not yet reached teacher agreement, the State Board of Education Wednesday urged all involved in the talks "to reach fair and equitable answers" as soon as possible.

At the same time, the board asked Gov. George Romney to seek $11.8 million in increased state school aid from the Legislature. Funds would be earmarked for expansion of programs for underprivileged youngsters.

Agreement on the board's contract resolution followed nearly an hour of debate.

Resume Talks
Thomas Brennan introduced the statement which calls on all groups involved in the talks "to immediately resume negotiations where they have broken off, without delay, and to utilize all avenues available."

Dr. Leroy Augenstein, who has offered a more strongly worded proposal, called Brennan's a "say nothing" statement.

His proposed statement would have urged negotiators to continue talks on an "urgent basis" and added, "wherever contracts are not completed in time, we urge that the schools open as normal while negotiations continue."

Continue Talks
Brennan said the responsibility of the board is to see that children get an education.

If the board urged teachers return to school without contracts it would in effect "attempt to destroy public employees bargaining power," he said.

The unanimously approved resolution states: "We also urge that all parties to school negotiations give consideration to opening schools as scheduled while they continue negotiations."

School authorities have expressed fear that schools would not open on time if settlements are not reached. And teachers have said they would not return to classrooms without contracts.

State law forbids strikes by public employees. The question has yet to be tested in Michigan courts.

316 Sign
Meanwhile, Lt. Gov. William Milliken reported that 316 school districts already have reached contract settlements, but 221 remain at the bargaining table.

The board approved a list of proposals to be submitted to Romney for possible consideration at the special fall legislative session.

The proposals call for: —$7 million to reduce the size of kindergarten through second grade classes to 15 in areas where 50 or more per cent of the families earned less than $2,000 a year in 1960.

—$1.6 million to continue Headstart and similar programs.

—$400,000 to enable schools

China Humiliates British

LONDON (AP) — Red China blared new threats today at British rule in Hong Kong and praised the Red Guards' attack on the British mission in Peking as the British government refused to break relations with Peking.

The official New China News Agency said Communist Chinese in Hong Kong await a signal from Peking to "completely smash the reactionary rule of British imperialism."

In the colony on Red China's southern shore, terrorists burned a Chinese radio comedian known for anti-Communist jokes and his brother. The comedian, Lam Bun, was reported near death after terrorists threw a bomb into his car, then doused him and his brother with gasoline and set them afire.

Japan's Kyodo news service said the official Peking People's Daily praised the burning of Britain's legation in Peking Tuesday as "a revolutionary action."

THE NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY released this photo in Tokyo with the accompanying caption: "Communist Chinese newsmen demonstrate outside the British Legation in Peking, Aug. 21, protesting against British orders to three Communist newspapers in Hong Kong to stop publication." ## Two Accused In U.P. Arson Plot

MENOMINEE—Two Appleton, Wis. men have been held for trial in Outagamie County Circuit Court on charges of solicitation to commit arson in connection with an alleged plot to burn a house that one of them owns in Menominee's Fairland Park.

W. "Jay" Culver, 36, the owner of the house, and Albert B. Smith, 42, were charged after the man they allegedly hired to burn the Menominee house went to Outagamie County authorities. The men were freed under $1,500 bond.

Robert Velie, Jr., 39, of Appleton, testified that he had agreed to set the fire after a contact made July 19 at a tavern west of Appleton at which he was asked if he "wanted to make some money." Velie said he talked it over with his wife and decided to contact the Outagamie sheriff.

There were further discussions with Culver and Smith and on July 21 the three drove to Menominee to look over Culver's house. Velie testified. He was paid $20 expense money for the Menominee trip and told to make the proposed arson look like a breaking and entering.

The Menominee sheriff was notified and on July 21 photographs of Velie, Smith and Culver were made at the Culver house in Menominee. Last contact of the three was July 24 at Outagamie County Airport when Smith and Culver wanted to know why Velie hadn't burned the house in the weekend. Warrants were then obtained for the arrest of Culver and Smith.

District Attorney Nick Schaefer testified that Culver had borrowed $5,000 from Smith and that Culver's Menominee property was insured for $20,000. He said that Velie was to have been paid from the insurance money.

Intrepid Wins Fifth Straight

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Heavily favored Intrepid and Columbia squared off again today in their head-to-head duel for the right to defend the America's Cup for the United States.

Intrepid walloped Columbia by seven minutes 45 seconds in the first completed race between the two Wednesday for her fifth victory without a loss in the current trial series. Columbia is 3-2.

The selection committee must pick one of the yachts by Sept. 5 to defend the Cup against Australian challenger Dame Pattie starting Sept. 12.

Constellation and American Eagle were dropped from the trials Tuesday. Intrepid led Columbia in an earlier race a week ago, but time stopped it before the finish. Intrepid's victory Wednesday was aided by unpredictable winds and flat air and the selection committee is anxious to see the two in better racing weather.

Intrepid held only a one minute 40 second lead when it caught the remainder of a breeze around the weather mark, leaving Columbia locked in a flat air hole. By the next mark, the lead had increased to 9½ minutes and Columbia never mounted a serious threat.

Stock Market Moves Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market put on a smart rebound early Thursday.

Gains outnumbered losses by about 2 to one as stocks moved higher after three days of decline.

Gains of about 2 points were posted for Lukens Steel, Xerox, Polaroid and Ling-Temco-Vought.

Up a point or more were Phelps Dodge, Control Data, Johns-Manville, U.S. Gypsum, Twentieth Century-Fox, Beckman Instruments and National Periodical Publications.

Steels gained fractions. Autos were steady to a shade higher. Allis-Chalmers was delayed in opening because of an accumulation of orders.

Allis-Chalmers rose 3¼ to 38½ on the New York Stock Exchange Wednesday. After the close, however, a rumor was denied that General Dynamics was making an offer for Allis-Chalmers stock valued at about $45 a share.

Mackinac Island is off-limits to motorized vehicles. The word "hostler" is derived from the old French noun "hostelier," one who operated a hostel or hotel in the real horse and buggy days, therefore, also took care of his guest's horses. The word came to mean one who cared for or managed horses.

Hostlers, draymen and teamsters all were once familiar sights on highway construction projects but of these only the "hostler" remains in the Highway Department's personnel glossary.

For maintenance Supervisor Aaron Sweeney of St. Ignace, "Hostler" Grove's work requires special attention. He peddles a bicycle over the road to inspect work performance.

Trashy People

John Voelker is not a man to raise his voice. When nettled or even goaded, he mounts his wrath in a measured manner that can be most effective. But, in his own admission, he can scarcely retain his calm when he addresses himself to something as repugnant as the desecration of the countryside. The Ishneming writer, fishermen and former attorney and State Supreme Court justice unleashed his invective on this subject in a recent column in the Sunday Detroit News.

"That droll fellow Traver (Voelker's pen name) has lost his cool and is about to blast his bile runneth over," Voelker wrote. "I speak of the torrents of trash that are pelted and hurled across our tormented landscape day and night. I speak of the horror of the old junk cars piled and tumbled all across our country in ghastly cemeteries full of rusting monuments to our indifference and greed."

"I speak of our littered highways so lined with cans and bottles and broken glass that only an Indian would dare walk along one barefoot. I speak of the foot-dragging of our law makers, of our law enforcers and mostly of you and me in the face of all this appalling slobery and swinishness..."

"That great Russian comic, Nikita Krushchev, once declared that his countrymen would one day bury us. He really needn't have bothered; we are busily doing the job for them; we are swiftly burying ourselves and our country under a remorseless downpour of trash."

Having stated the problem in appropriately pungent prose, Voelker set forth suggested solutions, all of them involving legislation. He urged a new law prohibiting the sale of beverages in non-returnable containers.

Another of Voelker's suggested new laws would impose mandatory jail sentences on persons convicted of littering, with the proviso that sentences could be suspended if the guilty persons agreed to pick up all the trash along a given stretch of highway (perhaps three miles) while wearing suitable insignia designating them as litterers.

Legislation is also needed to eliminate the junk car problem, Voelker said, and he urged that "all publicly visible unregistered old cars and trucks that won't run... be declared public nuisances and destroyed, including all those publicly visible in old car junk yards." Voelker further recommended legislation to establish conveniently-located junk car crushers for public use in every county. He would pay for this program by increasing automobile license fees.

Some aspects of the Traver treatment may seem like medicine, but clearly some harsh measures are necessary if we are to make any progress in the litter problem, which has taken on the proportions of a national scandal.

Every one should be concerned over this problem because it is an aesthetic outrage. And those whose aesthetic threshold is remote or non-existent should consider the economic dimensions of the problem. Literally thousands of dollars are spent annually in Delta County to clean up litter. Literally millions are spent annually in Michigan. And obviously billions are spent nationally on this problem in the span of a few years.

Those who are responsible for creating the problem should pay the price for combating the problem, as Voelker proposes. If this or something equally drastic isn't undertaken, we face the dreary prospect of life on a planet that becomes less beautiful with each passing day.

Voelker captures this depressing outlook in his concluding words: "It isn't only the god-awful ugliness of all this trash-hurled and junk car blight. It isn't even the staggering expense and accompanying danger — bad as all these things are. It is the growing suspicion that a country that can spawn a nest-fouling population that can so spectacularly defile, degrade and deflower its environment is a country headed for deep trouble. Finally there is the awful haunting suspicion that a people that can so witlessly hurl their trash about are themselves nothing but trash. It is a melancholy thought."

Reject Hate

Too many Americans, both black and white, have lost sight of what the civil rights movement — or Negro revolution, or racial crisis — is all about, if ever they understood it.

Is not its aim, basically and ultimately, to create a society which affords all its members the fullest possible opportunity to work and live and learn and to realize their potential as human beings, insofar as they are able regardless of what color skin they wear?

Too many Americans, both black and white, seem willing to wash that dream down the drain of history, if ever they believed in it.

In almost the same breath, the U. S. House of Representatives enthusiastically passed a dubious anti-rail bill to treat the symptoms of Newark and Detroit and a dozen other cities, but ridiculed a plan to exterminate the rats which outnumber even the Negroes in those cities' teeming slums.

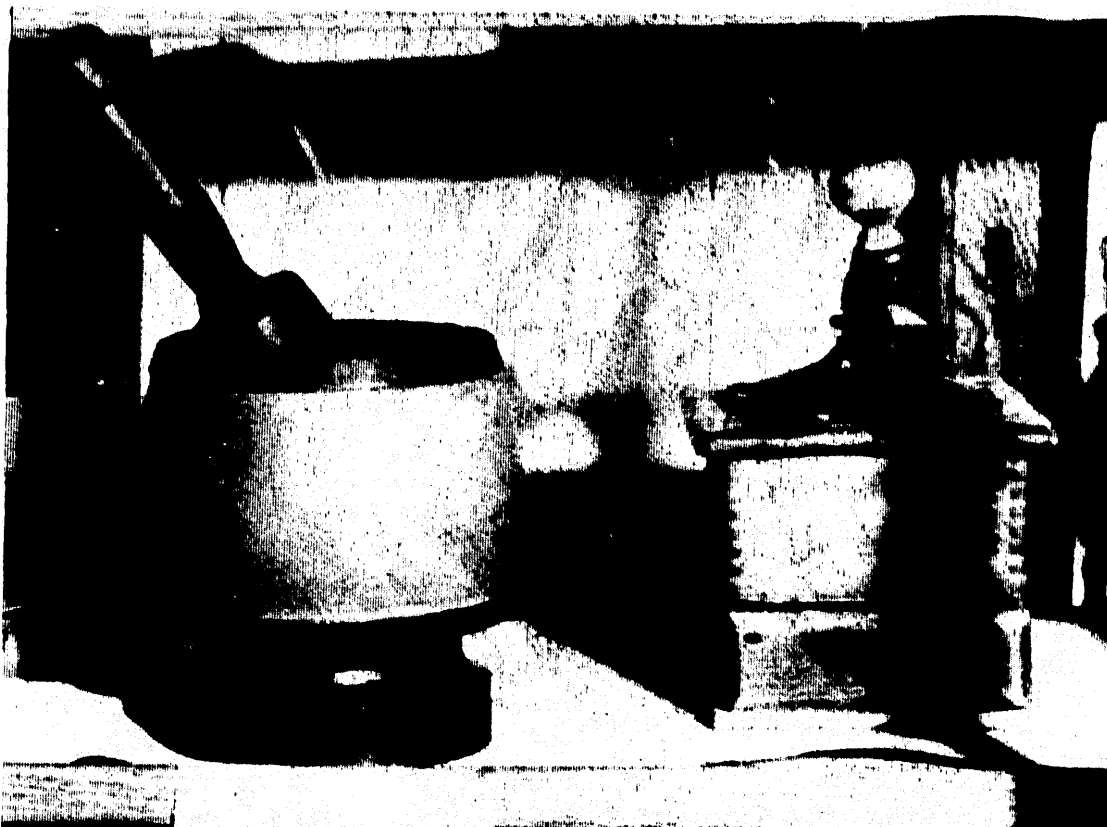

At a "black power" conference in Newark, hundreds of angry Negro activists talked of hate and boycotts and armed rebellion, of withdrawal and actual separation from white America — and in so doing warned the hearts of families of both colors who would like nothing better than the "final solution" of open civil war between white and black.

It is to be hoped that the vast majority of Americans, both black and white, have too much good sense and good will — to permit the civil rights movement to degenerate to this level.

Despite setbacks and an agonizingly slow pace, immense progress has been made in the past decade. Negroes — too few of them, but more and more of them — are beginning to attain the education and jobs and living standards that were denied their fathers. Doors of opportunity are beginning to open a little wider each year.

More importantly, men's hearts are changing. The Negro is no longer the "invisible man" in American society. He is gaining an appreciation of his own worth, and he is beginning to force the white man to appreciate that worth as well.

The extremists, the fanatics, the haters on both sides are dying. They must be repudiated, Americans, both black and white, have come too far, have too much to lose and too much to gain, to allow their hearts to be hardened once more.

SISTER BORREMEA

While living on this earth, Sister Borrenea dedicated her life to God, and now she has left this world to meet her creator. Yet, she also left behind many acts and deeds she did for Delta County.

I became acquainted with this remarkable woman while working for the Hospital Auxiliary. As I knew her better, I was amazed with her ability, vitality and her persistence to achieve what she set out to do.

With the help of some very fine ladies of this community, Mrs. George Bartley, Mrs. Michael Jensen and Mrs. Frank Andrews, she helped organize the St. Francis Hospital Auxiliary. The motto of this auxiliary was and is to have a "better relationship between the hospital and the community, which it serves." Under Sister Borrenea's spiritual leadership, many women of the community, too numerous to name, dedicated their time and efforts to this goal.

Perhaps without Sister Borrenea, the hospital would still have gotten the modern new addition it did get, but it was through her endless efforts and determination during her administration that the community caught fire with the spirit of helping Delta County can be proud of this accomplishment.

I shall always remember Sister Borrenea, a lady who had a lot of ability and was a great friend of humanity. Marina Chapek 1601 S. 16th St.

VIETNAM

During my visit to Vietnam this summer it became crystal clear that the war over there is increasingly being fought with American blood, sweat and money. It is no longer an Asian war — it is an American war.

What we are fighting is an organized system of Communist terror that puts grenades in the hands of children and teaches them the machinations of war before they learn to read. If this system is allowed to succeed, like the tentacles of an octopus, it could spread to other sections of Asia and the world.

However, I am convinced, as big and powerful as we are, we simply cannot be the policemen of the world. In Vietnam, to be specific, we must not go it alone. The South Vietnamese government must put its full resources behind the war effort: without their total commitment there is no purpose to the great American sacrifice. Further, we should ask ourselves what we are trying to defend, as well as what we are trying to defeat.

Even if we were to win a decisive military victory and leave an entrenched totalitarian dictatorship behind us we have won little in terms of human progress, and you can bet America's future that Communism will continue to thrive and feed on the corruption. Therefore, a popular, viable government in South Vietnam must be forthcoming if our sacrifices are to mean anything at all.

It is time for the Saigon government to spread its record before the people and give them a chance in a free and fair election to choose a president. While in Vietnam, I became deeply concerned that the upcoming elections would be a sham. In Asia and in Washington I hammered away at the theme that the United States must do all it can to insure fair elections. Since June, when I was the only member of Congress to my knowledge talking about this issue, a growing number of senators and congressmen from both sides of the political fence have joined in the battle. Sadly enough, President Johnson's attitude has largely been defensive and indifferent. I am encouraged, however, that our pressure seems to be having some effect in Vietnam.

The time is here for the Johnson Administration to spell out a clear Asian policy that gives meaning to the sacrifice of the dedicated young men who have put their lives on the line.

Percy Dilemma Is

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Republican Sen. Charles Percy of Illinois faces more tantalizing decisions than any professional noncandidate for president should have to confront. His only comfort is that he can put them off for several months.

He has to decide whether to try to be Illinois' favorite son, knowing that if he is not he will be somewhat weakened as a 1968 GOP presidential prospect.

He may have to decide, near the end of February, whether to allow his name to go into the all-candidate Wisconsin primary (and probably similar tests in Nebraska and Oregon), knowing that if he does some moderates will accuse him of a "wrecking operation" against Michigan's Gov. George Romney, moderate.

The senator's aides indicate that Percy does not intend to resolve his dilemma over the primaries until he must — which means when the Wisconsin filing deadline approaches at February's end.

The passage of time may or may not ease this problem. Since the New Hampshire primary, involving Romney, Richard Nixon and possibly Gov. John Volpe of Massachusetts, comes two weeks after the Wisconsin deadline, the senator will have to leap one way or the other without knowing how Romney has done in a real voting test.

If Percy acts on the basis of pragmatic polls in New Hampshire, he might regret it. Some polls in the 1964 primaries were far off the mark.

The senator's puzzlement over the favorite son issue can hardly be less acute. Published reports notwithstanding, he is a long way from settling that matter. He has not even discussed it with the key man, Sen. Everett Dirksen, his senior colleague.

Right now, Illinois Republican professionals think Dirksen himself both needs and deserves favorite son status as a major boost to his 1968 re-election bid.

They expect Dirksen will have the stiffest Democratic opposition of his senatorial career. State Treasurer Adlai Stevenson III is typical of the name-value candidates the Democrats are considering.

The professionals argue further that Dirksen's move to support Percy for the Senate in 1966, though brought about by heavy party pressure, should be reciprocated by Percy next year through support for Dirksen as favorite son.

how do you go about breaking up a squeeze?"

If this were an Emily Post column we might reply, "Learn judo or karate." As bridge writers, all we can say is that most of the time you can't do anything about it but once in awhile you can break up declarer's line of communication.

Here is a defensive play by Bernard Tighe of Jackson, Miss., that did just that. But it is noteworthy that the lead to break up the squeeze gave declarer a chance to make his contract another way.

South won the spade lead with the ace and played out his queen of diamonds. Bernard won with the king and returned a second spade to South's queen. South led his jack of diamonds. Bernard noted that West dropped the eight and that therefore West was marked with no more diamonds. Bernard could have held South to ten tricks by ducking, but he was afraid that South held both ace and jack of hearts. In that case he could see the possibility that South would make all the rest of the tricks if allowed to hold the diamond trick so Bernard took his ace of diamonds and looked around for his next play.

A lazy man would lead another spade but Bernard could see a squeeze about to develop against him. South would surely run five club tricks and cash dummy's last high spade. This would leave Bernard with only three cards and he would have to unguard either his king of hearts or nine of diamonds.

There was one way to stop this. Bernard played his six of hearts. South studied awhile. He could let that heart ride around to dummy's queen but South would look mighty silly if West held the heart king and the diamonds were going to break so South went up with his ace of hearts and was held to four.

New York City's police and hospitals stopped using sirens on emergency ambulances in 1954, because of the increasing numbers of accidents caused by cars trying to scramble out of the way. However, limited use of sirens has been started again for testing purposes.

Ann Landers

Titles Are Often Retained For Life

Dear Ann Landers: I have a message that can save lives and I want to reach as many people as possible. Please print my letter.

A dear friend and a fine human being died recently because he did something that many of us would do without giving it a second thought. It seems so harmless. My friend went down to his basement after a heavy rain, waded through 12 inches of water, tried to disconnect an electric appliance and was electrocuted.

Please tell people who have basements that tend to flood to go down and disconnect the appliances BEFORE the floor gets covered with water. If the basement is already flooded, they should call the electric company and ask them to shut off the power from the outside.

This friend was a clergyman, a wonderful human being who knew a great many things, but he paid with his life for not knowing this one bit of information. Thank you for printing this.—CHICAGO

Dear Chicago: Here is your letter, and I hope parents will discuss this column with their children at dinner tonight. Thank you for writing. You have alerted 54 million people.

Dear Ann Landers: How long does it take to recover from a broken heart? It's been over a year since I discovered that letter in my husband's pocket. He denied being seriously involved — said she mistook "friendship" for something deeper. According to him the woman was fantasizing and described things she had hoped would happen, but never did.

I have always been insecure and sensitive, especially where my marriage was concerned. My husband is handsome and vigorous and women flip over him. I am plain and quiet and never understood why he married me. When I found that letter I went to pieces, and I can't seem to pull myself together.

We have three beautiful children and a lovely home. I have tried to recover from this blow but I'm not making the grade. My doctor told me to forgive and forget. Is it possible? — STILL HURTING

Dear Still: You bet it's possible. Millions of women are doing it. And most of them have a lot more evidence than you have, Lady. If you can't forgive him for HIS sake, forgive him for YOUR sake. From the sound of your letter, I suspect if your husband didn't have a girl friend, you'd invent one.

Dear Ann Landers: How long should a former governor call himself "Governor"? A certain gentleman, who shall be unnamed, has not held this office for one heck of a long time, yet his wife refers to him as "the Governor" and so do his other relatives.

Give them the word, will you? — UNIMPRESSED

Dear Un: The word is for YOU. Although former governors (and other public officials as well) do not continue to use the title officially, they often retain the title unofficially for the rest of their lives. This does not bother me in the least, but obviously it bothers the daylight out of you. Why?

If you have trouble getting along with your parents... if you can't get them to let you live your own life, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Buggered By Parents? How to Get More Freedom." Send 50c in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Salvation Army Is Hippie Lure

NEW YORK (AP) — Offering free coffee and sympathetic understanding, the Salvation Army has invaded the stronghold of the hippies and the teenybopper from a Greenwich Village cafe called The Answer.

"They think the army's a real groovy and a beautiful thing," says Ed Herzberg, a 23-year-old soldier to the hippies who helps run the storefront cafe on MacDougal Street near Bleecker Street.

Since it opened three weeks ago, The Answer has become a popular gathering place for young people—generally between 14 and 22—and its narrow interior fills quickly each night.

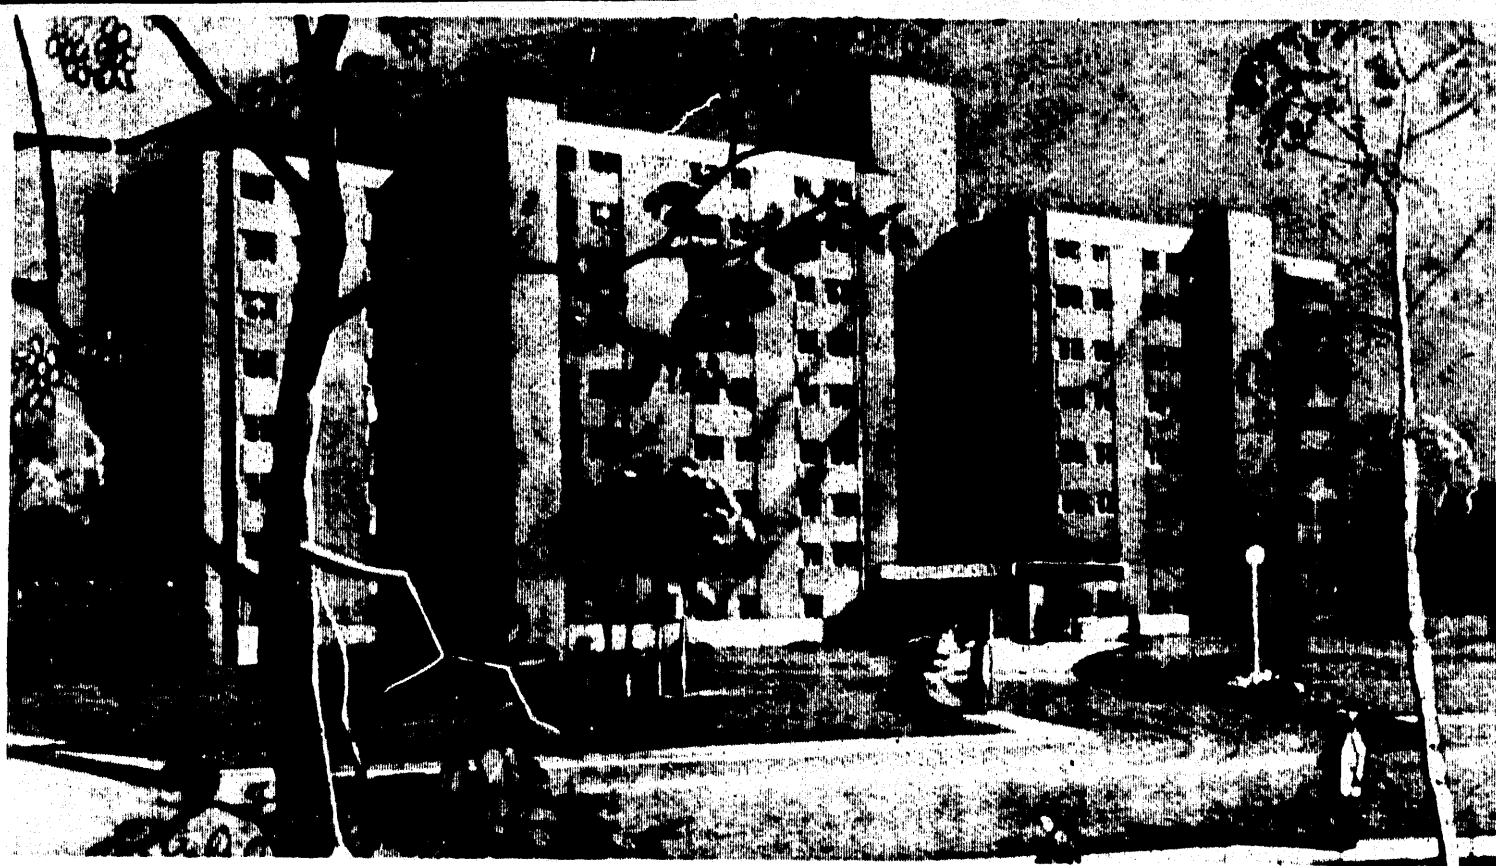

An oversize brooding portrait of Gen. William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, looks down from one wall and flower generation graffiti are painted on the opposite side.

For entertainment there is a hi-fi set and sometimes singers use the tiny stage at the back of the room. There are chess sets, books, and always a friendly soldier to listen.

"We make no bones about the fact that we're Christians. Christ is the answer," said Capt. Brian J. Figueroa, 24, who runs The Answer. But, he added, "it's a subtle ministry. There's no hard sell."

Schools Aided

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan nursing schools have received $646,254 in federal capital contributions and $71,000 in revolving fund loans from the Nursing Student Loan program. It was announced Wednesday. The figures represent allocations for the 1968 fiscal year.

ARCHITECT'S sketch of proposed housing project for elderly in Marquette was drawn by Coder Taylor Associates, Kenilworth, Ill. The $2,300,000 structure, housing 140 low-rent apartments, will be built between Arch and Ridge Sts. in the 300 block of Pine St. Main entrance of complex will face Pine St. Construction is expected to begin next spring, with occupancy eyed for the summer of 1969.

Road Work Halts For Labor Day

LANSING (AP) — The State Highway Department has ordered all work suspended on all highways and bridges open to traffic over the Labor Day weekend during a period from 5 p.m. Friday, Sept. 1, until the following Tuesday morning.

Egg Output Up

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's commercial and farm flocks produced 141 million eggs during July, seven per cent above the egg production by Michigan chickens in June.

McGoff Named President Of Northern Board

MARQUETTE — John P. McGoff, 43, of Williamston, Mich., president of Panax Corp., Wednesday night was elected chairman of the Northern Michigan University Board of Control by unanimous vote.

He succeeds Ogden E. Johnson, Ishpening, chairman since November, 1965, who is resigning to accept the interim presidency of Northern until a successor to Dr. Edgar L. Harden is named. Harden resigned in June as Northern's 6th president.

McGoff, whose Panax Corp. publishes the Escanaba Daily Press, the Marquette Mining Journal and the Iron Mountain News, and owns several other papers in Lower Michigan as well as radio and television stations in Michigan and Missouri, has been a member of the NMU board of control since its inception in January, 1965.

He is a native of Pittsburgh who graduated from Epworth High School there and spent four years in the U.S. Army. He served in Africa and Sicily in World War II.

McGoff received his bachelor's master's degrees in history from Michigan State University and later served the university as assistant director of administrative affairs and director of university magazines and coordinator for continuing education.

In 1959 he joined a company which later became Panax Corp. Starting with the acquisition of several radio and TV stations, it later became owner of several newspapers, most recently the three Upper Peninsula dailies.

Seek Trainees

DETROIT (AP) — The Wayne State University Applied Management and Technology Center said Wednesday it is seeking 1,000 Detroit-area business men to make its building safe or evacuate it on July 1 of this year and then grant an extension until Oct. 1.

Delta County said Chairman Charles Sedquist of the Delta County Board of Supervisors earlier, wants to get out of the infirmary business and so is reluctant to make further investment in the nursing home and is hopeful that private provision will be made for care of the county's elderly nursing home.

Bright proposed for care of at least part of this load is a new medical center planned near Doctors Park in Escanaba by Willow Creek Development Corp., which built Doctors Park. Sedquist indicated that Delta County hoped that the infirmary can extended care facility for persons needing some medical care but less than general hospital services) would be

Marquette Planning Housing For Elderly

While Delta County hopes that some private venture will take away its problem of housing for the elderly, with the state forcing closing of the county-owned, privately-operated Delta County Nursing Home, Marquette County is moving to solve a somewhat related problem of its own.

Delta County wants to get out of the infirmary business and hasn't met the minimal state standards for patient safety.

Plans for Marquette's $2.3 million housing facility for the elderly have been approved by the federal Housing Assistance Administration's Chicago office.

The apartment complex of 140 units will be a high-rise structure on Pine St. between Arch and Ridge Sts., on the site of the old Froebel-Howard School.

Eight stories high in all but one section, which will be nine stories, the building will house 96 one- and two-bedroom units, 39 larger one-bedroom units, 4 two-bedroom apartments and one three-bedroom apartment on the first floor for the manager and his family.

Apartment will rent for $38 to $55 per month, including utilities, and will be available to persons 55 or older, with limited incomes.

Brick-Faced Block
George R. Howell, executive secretary of the Marquette Housing Commission, which is in charge of the project locally, said the building will be constructed with double walls of brick faced with brick and will be of fireproof construction.

It will be equipped with certain convenience features geared to the needs of senior citizens — handrails, raised outlets for easy accessibility, etc. The building's two elevators will be situated in the center of the first floor lobby, on the perimeter of which will be a community area with lounge, arts and crafts room, saunas, mailroom, etc.

Sitting rooms also will be provided on the fifth and ninth floors, while laundries will be located on floors 2, 3, 4, 7 and 8, Howell said.

The sublevel (basement) floor will house boiler room, maintenance and storage rooms, an incinerator and other related facilities. Parking for 35 cars will be provided at the rear of the building.

Gas, Electricity
Howell said HAA approved construction of the building with a combination of gas and electricity. Gas will be used for heating, cooking and hot water purposes, electricity for other utility needs.

The HAA (formerly the Public Housing Administration), he said, could not justify the all-electric rate set by the Marquette Board of Light and Power. At the rate of 1.5 cents per kilowatt hour, all-electric service for the complex would cost $36.26 per unit per month, compared with $24.9 for the gas-electricity combination and $26.74 for a combination of oil and electricity.

Plans call for bids on the 85,000-square-foot building to be asked in February and opened in March.

Howell said that 14 to 18 months are estimated for completion, so occupancy is expected during the summer of 1969.

Already, the housing commission has received 130 applications for the low-rent units — enough to nearly fill the structure.

RELIGION AND ARCHITECTURE will compare notes on structures such as the St. Mary's Cathedral in Tokyo, shown here, in the first International Congress on Religion, Architecture and the Visual Arts, to be held in New York Aug. 27 through Sept. 1. Artists, architects and representatives of the major religious faiths of the world will discuss the implications of contemporary art and the religious imagination. The aluminum and concrete Tokyo cathedral, designed by architect Kenzo Tange, is praised for its forthrightness, and for being dramatic without tricks or illusions or artificial mysteriousness.

Officials Argue Ware's Arrest

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Even with his bond out in half Black Power disciple George Washington Ware remained in jail today while officials debated the extradition charges which put him there.

The bond was set Wednesday from $10,000 to $5,000.

The charges brought against Ware by two Nashville lawyers were criticized by Mayor Beverly Briley and U.S. Atty. Gilbert Merritt.

Merritt said he had advised Briley that the U.S. Supreme Court has ruled 12 years ago that Congress has reserved sedition for the federal courts and pre-empted state courts in this matter. He said such charges must be brought in federal court.

Briley called a news conference to attack state Rep. Charles Galbreath, one of two men filing the charge, and added, "I do not believe the people of this community desire that our city be a publicity center for activities of this kind."

Ware, 27, who accompanied Stokely Carmichael on a recent trip to Cuba, was arrested Tuesday on a complaint by Galbreath and Jack Kershaw, a former official of the White Citizens Council.

Defense attorneys said they would defend Ware on the same grounds cited by Briley, who called for quick court action to dispose of the charge and said it should be brought in federal court if at all.

Galbreath and Kershaw said they took their action as private citizens and based it on Ware's statement as reported in newspapers that "black people must achieve power by whatever means necessary, including violence."

"While it may be true that overthrow of the federal government is exclusively under the jurisdiction of federal courts, overthrow of state government would still be in the state court's jurisdiction," Galbreath said.

The charge was brought under the Tennessee sedition statute which sets a maximum fine of $10,000 and 10 years in prison for persons advocating the overthrow of the state or U.S. government by force or violence or who are members of a group advocating such overthrow.

Simulated Riot Drill Scheduled For Escanaba

National Guardsmen from the Delta County area will begin 32-hours of riot-training drills Saturday at the Armory in Gladstone. Capt. George Anderson, commander of Company E, 107th Engineers, announced today.

Eight hours drills will begin at 7:30 a. m. both Saturday and Sunday.

Anderson said that most of the work this weekend will be devoted to classroom teaching, but that the unit is planning a "simulated riot" drill Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 16-17, in north Escanaba.

The commander said that although plans have not been completed, the unit will mobilize in Gladstone at the armory and then move into Escanaba, setting up headquarters at the U. P. State Fairgrounds.

To "Seal Off" Area

He indicated that the unit will probably "seal off" a portion of the north Escanaba as the guard was instructed to do in the Detroit riots.

During the "simulated riot" the National Guard will work with Escanaba police and firemen to control "rioters." Anderson said a "band of rioters" is being developed to "give the guardsmen some trouble" during the exercise.

The Michigan Army and Air National Guard has been directed to complete 32 hours of unit training in civil disturbance and riot control during August and September. The "crash" training program is a result of President Johnson's order for more and better riot control training to deal with the guerrilla-type tactics employed during big city riots.

The guard units will use new Army lesson plans, stressing that only the minimum force required to restore order be used. The basics are to prevent crowds from forming, to disperse mobs rapidly and to apprehend known or suspected leaders.

Specific measures suggested to break up a riot include the use of fire hoses or water cannons and such non-toxic gases as tear gas. If those fail, the Army plans call for small-arms fire by selected marksmen and full firepower by massed units.

Looting Control

The latter, it is emphasized, should be ordered only as a last resort and when "the consequences of failure to completely subdue the riot would be imminent overthrow of the government, continued mass casualties or similar grievous conditions."

The lessons also cover control of looting, the sealing off of areas with barbed wire, the movement of patrols and establishment of guard posts.

Company E, 107th Engineers, of Gladstone, and about 50 more men from this area who belong to the 1437th Float Bridge Co., Sault Ste. Marie, were called into Detroit last month to control rioting. The men were moved into the riot zone from Camp Grayling, where they had been involved in two weeks of summer drills.

Burglar's Brag Leads To Trial

DETROIT (AP) — A man who bragged of his skill as a career burglar in an interview with a newspaper has been bound over for trial as a burglar.

The defendant, Ammon Hanley, who told the reporter of spending 30 of his 47 years behind bars, was confined in the Wayne County jail when he was unable to make the $5,000 cash bond set Wednesday by Recorder's Court Judge Robert DeMascio at a pretrial examination.

Hanley told his career as a burglar in a story printed in the Detroit News Sunday Magazine. The article, written by William Noble, was designed as a warning to householders.

Four days after the article was printed, Hanley was spotted by a 16-year-old boy in a neighborhood on the Northwest Side he said he preferred to operate in during his days as a burglar.

The youth, John Valle, said he trailed Hanley for several blocks, watched him enter two houses and then called police.

When Valle told his story as a prosecution witness Wednesday, Judge DeMascio said, "I wish Detroit had a million and a half citizens like this boy."

Camera Stolen From Automobile

James DeCaire, 528 S. 13th St., reported to Escanaba police Wednesday that a camera and two lenses, one wide angle and the other telephoto, were stolen from his car between 1 and 5 p. m.

DeCaire told police the equipment was taken from the glove compartment of the car while it was parked at the rear of 711 Ludington St. Officers are investigating.

VFW Winners

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Rae-Ven's Junior Girls Drill Team of Union Lake, Mich., won a first-place award for marching in the Junior Girls Class B category Wednesday at the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention in New Orleans.

The sleep-in was part of a protest against the Flint City Commission's rejection of an open housing ordinance.

City Attorney Charles Forrest and Wednesday that "one or two" city commissioners had asked him to investigate legal procedures that would force the city to have the law declared to identify the commissioners making the request.

Briefly Told

Delta County Sheriffs officers have cited three juveniles to Probate Court for a breach of the peace after the Ford River Lions club building in May. Officers said the juveniles were apprehended after a lengthy investigation. A half-gallon of beer was stolen in the breach.

Escanaba Police issued traffic summonses Wednesday to Anne A. Bagie, Brampton, speeding, Mack O. Anderson, 1416 1st Ave. S., disobeyed traffic signal, and Robert F. Gallagher, Mackinac Island, defective equipment, no proof of insurance and no valid operator's license.

William VanEffen, city electrical superintendent, reported to Escanaba police Wednesday that 10 electrical insulators have been shot out with a 22 caliber rifle on a power line on Willow Creek Rd. Police are investigating.

GEORGE SCOTT ROMNEY, son of Michigan Gov. George Romney, and his bride, the former Ronna Eileen Stern, stroll with their parents outside the Salt Lake Mormon Temple. The young couple was married Wednesday in the temple where Governor and Mrs. Romney, left, were married 36 years ago. The bride's stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kraus of Birmingham, Mich., are on the right. (AP Wirephoto)

Cholera Perils Wartorn Viet

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — Dr. Paul Peterson, assistant U.S. surgeon general, said Wednesday that cholera may reach epidemic proportions before the end of the year in wartorn Vietnam.

Peterson spoke at the 23rd annual conference of the Michigan Health Officers Association. He recently visited Vietnam to review that nation's health programs with government and military officials.

Peterson praised the work of the American armed forces in the Southeast Asian nation. But he said not enough emphasis had been placed by the Vietnamese on preventive medicine.

"Communicable diseases are still widespread," he said, "and cholera may reach epidemic proportions later this year."

Peterson spoke at a dinner honoring Dr. Albert Heustis, director of the Michigan State Health Department, who is retiring after 19 years in the post.

Detroit Club Holds Race Ban

DETROIT (AP) — The Women's City Club of Detroit reportedly has rejected any change in its controversial policy banning Negro guests from part of the club's facilities.

Last May, Mrs. George Romney, wife of the Michigan governor, resigned on a conditional basis from the club. She described her action at the time as "just a protest."

The Detroit Free Press said today the policy was supported in a survey of opinion made by secret ballot, and the official result of the survey is scheduled to be announced to the membership at large in the September issue of the club magazine.

Charges of discrimination were leveled at the organization last May by the Detroit Women Writers, a group of published authors who had been meeting at the City Club for more than 40 years.

The writers announced they no longer would hold meetings at the club, which they accused of having a "restrictive policy incompatible with our policies as a professional organization."

Training Grant

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department said Wednesday it has awarded Saginaw a $210,115 grant to help train 60 licensed practical nurses. The project will cost a total of $219,115.

College Tells Rotary Its Growth Problems

Escanaba Rotarians ate their luncheon on Tuesday at Bay de Noc Community College's student center instead of at the House of Ludington and heard about the college's method of "make do" with its present building while under heavy pressures to expand and accommodate more students.

Delta County voters rejected a proposal on June 26 for 2 mills for college building and operation.

Rotarians toured the college building, the former Escanaba High School, after hearing Dr. William Bull, newly appointed academic dean of the college, and Joseph L. Heiman, chairman of the board of trustees.

Heiman said that the college's present building has a capacity of 300 students, but that architectural standards for ideal teaching conditions would rate the capacity at 300 students.

Present enrollment, said Heiman, is 450 students. These have been accommodated in a building too small for efficient accommodation of that number by scheduling Saturday classes, doubling the size of the evening classes and eliminating some functions of the college.

Foreign language studies once included French, Spanish and German and are now only French.

Gates at the fairgrounds on Detroit's North Side open at noon Friday with officials hoping crowds will top the million mark for the sixth consecutive year when the Fair ends Labor Day.

Back in 1849, the first Michigan State Fair drew nearly 10,000.

This year livestock exhibitors will compete for a record $142,000 in premiums, including a prize for the first sow to have a litter during the fair.

Performing in the music shell will be Sergio Mendes & Brazil '66, singer Buddy Greco, the Sandpipers and three Detroit girls who made Motown famous—the Supremes.

In the grandstand, the Barnes and Carnations three-ring circus will entertain beginning Monday through Sept. 2.

Through its Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety of the Federal Highway Administration, the department announced in a notice in the federal register its intention to make amendments that would:

—Set minimum depth for grooves where tires touch the road surface.

—Ban regrooved, recapped or retreaded tires on front wheels of trucks and truck tractors.

—Ban use of regrooved tires on all commercial vehicles, "or on particular vehicles in specified service."

—Specify grooving patterns, spacing and width of grooves and limitations on tire elements that may not be cut in the grooving process.

The figures are for full-time students.

The college has 9 classrooms in use, accommodating an average of 25 students each, and a library which seats 70, an insufficient number for the usage created by the enrollment.

The college can serve food to 230 at its student center, which would accommodate an enrollment of about 300.

Class scheduling is tight students can't linger to talk with faculty members, and laboratories are small so that maximum efficiency can't be obtained by spreading the instructor over larger classes than 20.

The state provides most of the revenues for the college, between 40 and 50 per cent of its income each year. Local taxes provide between 20 and 25 per cent and student fees and tuition the rest.

Since people in other counties like neighboring Menominee and Schoolcraft also pay taxes for the largest share of the college's income the state expects the college to provide services to students from outside Delta County as well as to Delta County people.

Under present policies the college meets this state direction by giving local students three advantages. Because they pay both state and local taxes Delta County residents pay a lower tuition, are given priority in admission and have the greatest economies in attending college because of proximity which permits them to live at home and travel short distances, while out-of-county students must rent rooms.

Rat Patrol Aids Needy

LANSING (AP) — Pinstriped warriors of Lansing's "Rat Patrol" stand combat-ready and willing to help.

Objective: Earning money to buy Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, money for Christmas treats for animals at the Ingham County Animal Shelter.

Weapons: Energy combined with long grass, old newspapers, empty pop bottles and piles of snow.

The little neighborhood army now includes 12 boys ranging in age from five to 10.

The boys took the name "Rat Patrol" from the famed World War II desert fighters who are now the subjects of a television show.

The Fishers have no children of their own, but have played host to children from their neighborhood since they moved into the home a year ago.

The Fishers now sponsor the patrol, provide a backyard or basement for meetings and outfit the troops.

Recently the boys received official insignia which Mrs. Fisher bought.

She enlisted Co. Richard Davis of the Michigan National Guard to present each soldier with the badge of his rank—from stars for generals to stripes for privates.

UNIFORMED MEMBERS of "Rat Patrol" in Lansing receive insignia from Col. Richard Davis of the Michigan National Guard. The 5 to 10-year-old boys plan to cut grass, shovel snow, collect old newspapers and empty pop bottles for money for food baskets for the needy at Thanksgiving. ## Big 3 Report Sales Declines DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. Wednesday joined General Motors and Chrysler in reporting sharp declines in new passenger car sales for the second 10 days of August.

American Motors Corp. has yet to announce sales figures.

Ford reported sales of 37,383 cars for the Aug. 11-20 period, compared with 57,040 for the same period last year. A company spokesman said, however, that there were only eight selling days in the period this year against nine in 1966.

Ford's Lincoln - Mercury Division reversed the trend, showing a marked increase in sales. The division reported sales of 8,359 cars in the mid - August period, up 11 per cent from the 7,542 sold during the same 10 days last year.

Earlier, GM and Chrysler both reported sales declines.

Insurance Lack Strangles Inner City Areas, Hart

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., urged the federal government and the insurance industry to find solutions to insurance problems he said are strangling businesses and residential neighborhoods in some inner city areas.

He has introduced a bill to direct the Commerce Department to work out a program with the industry and report to Congress.

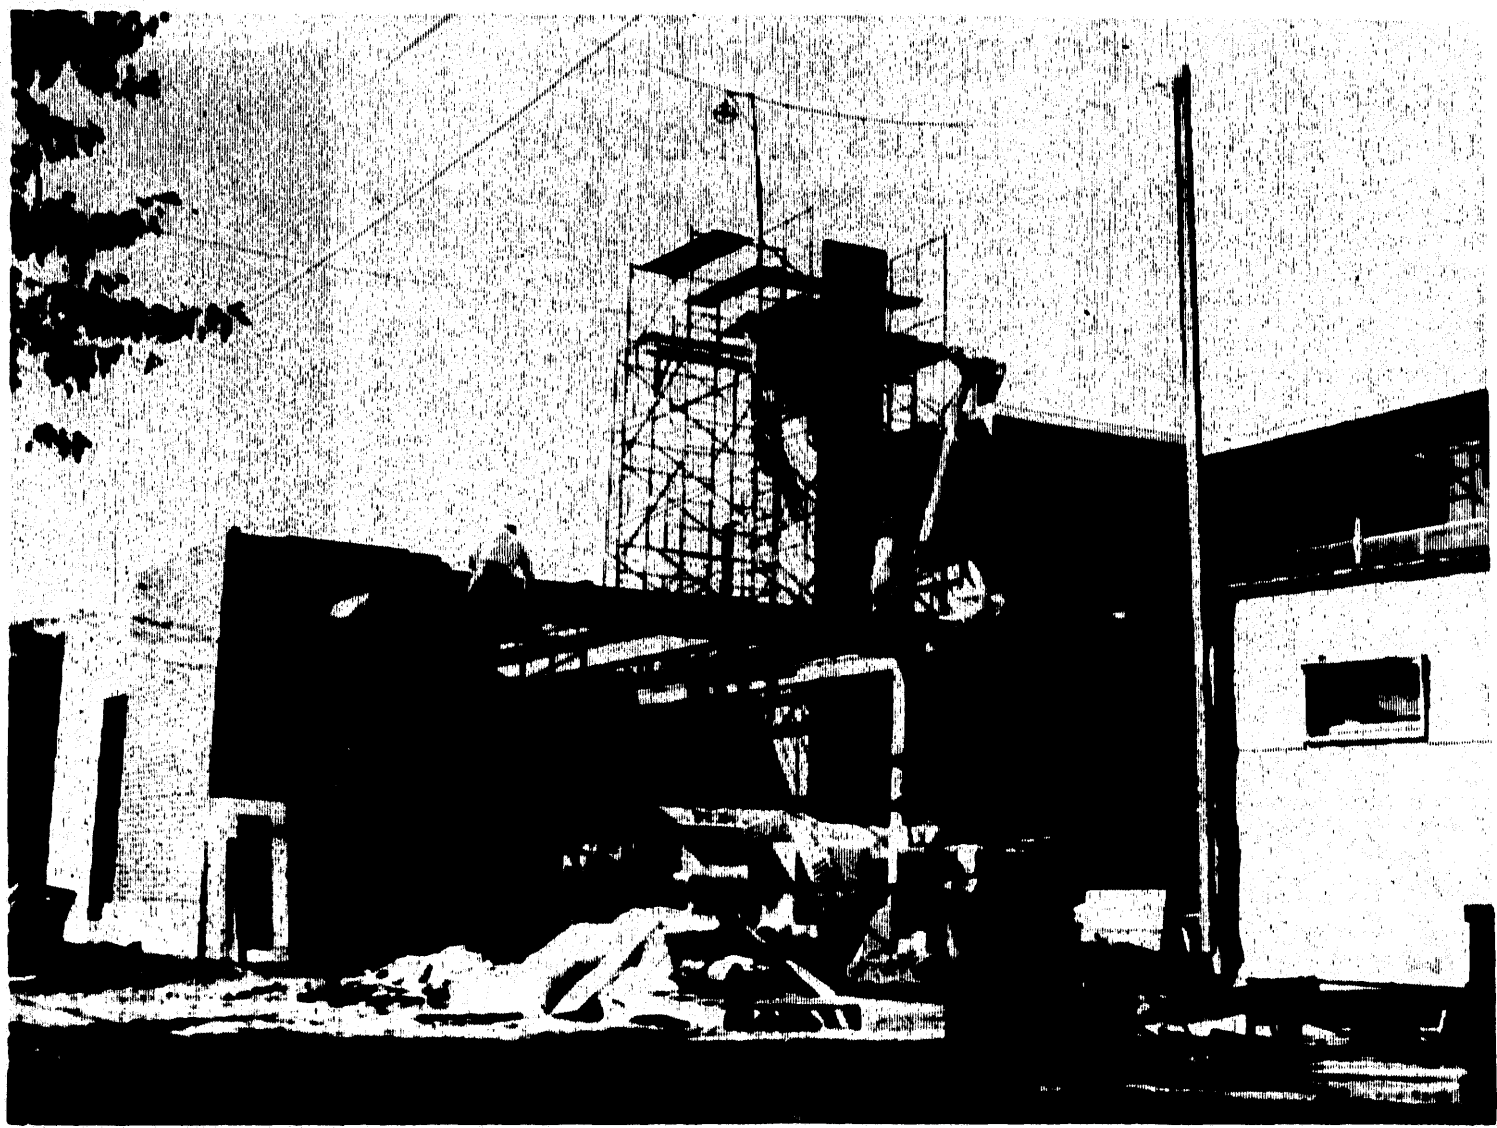

Business cannot exist without insurance and the inner city has no hope of survival without business, Hart said in a statement adding that residential neighborhoods where insurance is prohibitive or unavailable have a history of rapid decay.

Elmer Anttonen Gets MSU Post

EAST LANSING (AP) — Dr. Elmer S. Anttonen, a native of Franklin, Mich., in the Upper Peninsula, has been named Michigan State University regional director of continuing education for western Michigan.

Anttonen will be responsible for coordinating the university's general extension activities in Ocala, Nevado, Mecosta, Muskegon, Montcalm, Kent, Ottawa, Ionia, Allegan and Barry counties.

He replaces Dr. Daniel M. Sefer, who is on leave as assistant to the president of Tufts College.

Portage Bay Has Special Teal Hunt For Eight Days

By LEE SMITH

For eight days in September there will be 1,500 gunners with special permits entitling them to shoot teal. With a permit comes locations of the eight areas in which teal may be hunted. These areas range from Little Bay de Noc to the St. Clair Flats, the lower Detroit River, the Pte. Mouillee marsh.

The shooting areas will be supervised, to check the kill and to deal with untrained shooters who mistake a mallard for a teal.

It is hoped by federal and state conservation authorities that this regiment of wildfowling will be composed largely of hunters able to distinguish, in flight, a teal — greenwing or bluewing — from any of the other species commonly frequenting the shooting grounds.

The peculiar habits of the bluewing teal have prompted experimental teal seasons to enable sportsmen in the United States to harvest a fair share of the bluewings produced in this country. Numerous bluewing and some greenwing nest in Michigan. Bluewing are conspicuous in late summer. Early in the fall, they suddenly disappear. Greenwing hang around after freezing weather sets in.

There are reports of big kills of bluewing teal in Mexico City, Cuba and other islands of the West Indies. They are not too easy to hit on the wing, but they are disposed to pitch in to decoys without hesitation. At least that is how they behave before they depart from Michigan.

The earnest appeal to teal hunters not to shoot other species is backed up by stiff penalties for making a mistake. But how is a young gunner to identify ducks on the wing? Pictures and descriptions might be of some help, but the only way to acquire this skill for sure is to devote years to wildfowling, in association with old-timers.

What makes wildfowling the most alluring of all kinds of hunting is variety. Variety of species, different hunting methods, different kinds of gear. There are half a dozen each of diving duck species and marsh ducks commonly found in Michigan. The duck that most closely resembles a teal is the wood duck, quickly recognized by its white belly, its twisting flight (although a teal can do a good job of twisting). The teal is a skimpy target. It is not in the habit of circling and hovering over decoys. It zooms in and out. Very easy to miss.

Other dabblers, the marsh ducks, do not hesitate to spend considerable time on big open water while teal stick pretty well to marsh. Widgeon are reputed to be piratical, snatching food from diving ducks fetch up from the bottom. Black duck and mallard stuff themselves on the leaves and stems of wild celery after canvasback have nipped off the white, tender root. There are times and places that make canvasback decoys perfect lures for wary black duck.

The opening of the special teal season, Sept. 15, is not likely to present the weather challenge that wildfowling seems to relish. In the old days, the duck season opened in Michigan on Sept. 1. An old time market-shooter, Bunty Chisholm, recalled days of shooting at the St. Clair Flats, bluewing teal mostly, selling his daily bag to the Star Island Hotel. With his American water spaniel for company, Mr. Chisholm rejoiced in mild weather, blue skies and literature. Between shots he read novels; his favorite, the Count of Monte Cristo.

Scott Romneys Back In Michigan Today

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Newspersons Mr. and Mrs. George Scott Romney and members of their families were in Michigan today, following Wednesday's wedding in the Salt Lake Mormon Temple.

Scott, 25, the eldest son of Michigan Gov. George Romney and his new bride, Ronna Eileen Stern, 23, of Birmingham, Mich., were married for time and all eternity in private rites of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

Only the bride and groom and immediate members of the Romney family were present when Elder Hugh B. Brown, first counselor in the First Presidency of the Mormon church, performed the marriage.

Following the 40-minute ceremony, Gov. and Mrs. Romney were hosts at a wedding breakfast honoring the bride and groom at a hotel rooftop restaurant which overlooks the multi-spired temple where the wedding took place.

Shortly after the breakfast, the Romneys and the bride's family boarded a commercial jet at the Salt Lake Airport and flew home to Michigan.

The bride's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Kraus, were unable to attend Wednesday's temple ceremony because they are not Mormons, but they will hold a reception Friday at the Bloomfield Hills country club.

After another reception at the Kraus home in Birmingham Sunday, the couple will honeymoon in Bermuda.

They plan to live in Cambridge, Mass., where Scott is a second-year student at the Harvard Law School.

Mormon Belief

Asked if she was disappointed that she couldn't attend the wedding of her oldest daughter, Mrs. Kraus said, "as long as that is the Mormon belief, then it's all right with us."

Gov. Romney said after the ceremony he was "thrilled Scott has such a lively wife and that they were married in this temple." He and his wife, Leona, were married there 36 years ago.

To this the governor's wife added: "The important thing is that this marriage is for time and eternity. We are happy that our children would go into the temple, where the Lord is really officiating."

HIGHEST FERTILITY RATE

The marriage fertility rate of the people of Malta is considered by some authorities to be the world's highest. It is now thought to be about 25 per cent above that of the Republic of Ireland, long regarded as the highest in the world, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Handgun Hazard In Detroit Area, Says Prosecutor

LANSING (AP)—Law enforcement spokesmen disarmed demonstrators Wednesday by agreeing there is little need to register rifles and shotguns in Michigan.

But members of a special House Committee on Firearms Legislation were told "a hazardous, dangerously critical situation" exists in the Detroit area because of the ease with which unregistered handguns can be imported from Ohio.

"These guns are sold with almost reckless disregard for where they're going or into whose hands they are likely to fall," testified Rhea Marchand of the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Marchand said federal legislation may be needed to control the flow of handguns across state lines.

Rep. Quincy Hoffman, R-Applegate, chairman of the special committee, said the body had no major gun control bills before it.

"We just wanted to get the thinking of people who are knowledgeable in this field," Hoffman said.

Spokesmen for the National Rifle Association, NRA, and Michigan United Conservation Clubs, MUCC, testified in opposition to licensing rifles and shotguns.

But Marchand and two State Police spokesmen agreed such weapons are not a major problem.

Industrial Park Work To Start

Construction work on the improvements at the Industrial Park will get underway Tuesday, Sept. 5, City Manager H. J. Henriksen said Wednesday.

General Contractor on the project is the L. W. Brumm Construction Co. of Marquette. Total cost of the project will be about $168,000.

Henriksen said that weather permitting the work will be completed this fall. Included in the improvements scheduled will be installation of water lines, sewers, storm sewers, curbing and bases for streets. Henriksen said there would be no hard surfacing of these this fall, but that all the base should be completed.

The Industrial Park project, when completed, will give Gladstone an additional lure in attempts to encourage industries to locate in the area. Several industries already are located in the park, the most recent being Marble Arms, Inc. in its fine new building.

Troopers Check Theft Of Auto At Rapid River

Theft of one car and the apparent attempted theft of another from a parking area near the blinker light on U.S. 2 and 41 at Rapid River was under investigation today by State Police of the Gladstone Post.

Officers said another car owned by Walter Thompson, Rapid River, which was parked at the same site was tampered with last night.

THE FINANCIAL TOLL of this nation's biggest race riot is now being tallied to some degree of accuracy, according to the figures above released by the Insurance Information Institute in New York City. The figures, which relate to insured business losses only, show $85 million in damages, not to mention the loss of 43 lives. By comparison, total damages in the 1965 Watts riots amounted to $40 million, with 35 deaths. Figures on the left side of the chart indicate the number of businesses damaged or destroyed.

9 Hoboes Need 5 Ballots To Pick New King

BRITT, Iowa (AP) — Only nine hoboes braved the rain here to attend the 67th annual Hobo Convention.

But it took five votes before the Hardrock Kid could be elected king of the hoboes and receive his coveted crown—a coffee can.

The Kid, whose real name is John Misen, a New Jersey native, regained the crown he lost last year to the Pennsylvania Kid, Richard Wilson.

Fair Goes Vote No To Fast Time

OWOSSO (AP) — The Shiawassee County Republican party said that a poll taken at last week's county fair showed strong opposition to Daylight Saving Time and a preference for a graduated state income tax.

Of 2,500 persons interviewed, 1,950 opposed fast time with 526 in favor, and 1,123 favoring a graduated income tax with 649 preferring the flat rate standard.

Results of the polls are being sent to Gov. George Romney and other GOP officials in Michigan.

Detroit Senator Asks Quota For Negro Policemen

LANSING (AP) — Sen. Coleman Young, D-Detroit, said Wednesday he will introduce legislation setting up a quota system for the hiring of Negro policemen in Michigan cities of more than 50,000 population.

Young, one of three Negroes in the Senate, said his bill also would give state subsidies to local communities to use for police salaries.

The bill, designed to encourage the hiring of qualified Negro policemen in cities with substantial Negro populations, will be introduced at the next regular legislative session, Young said.

"The policy established in many communities, including Detroit, discriminates against equal hiring of Negroes as police officers," Young said. "He said the unfair policy 'pertains even to the state troopers,' adding that the recent hiring of a Negro trooper by the State Police 'does not begin to answer the problems of police integration in the state.'"

"Negroes should have responsibilities in the top command of our police forces where there are substantial numbers of Negroes living," Young said. "In predominantly Negro areas of Detroit, the top command of police precincts should be Negro."

Young said the bill will subsidize local police forces, but in order to qualify, cities of more than 50,000 population would have to raise the percentage of Negroes on the police force to the level of the city's Negro population.

"In Detroit this would mean approximately two out of every five Detroit policemen would be Negro," he said.

Changes in police hiring policies, recommended by the Civil Rights Commission following a survey, are now under study by the Civil Service Commission.

"The current hiring methods of most police forces, including the State Police, are deplorable," Young said. "Negroes are openly discriminated against. The State Police director's public relations program, which consists of accepting one Negro on his force of thousands of troopers will not suffice."

Ford's Papers Given To U Of M

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Rep. Gerald Ford, R-Mich., has given his papers on the Warren Commission's investigation of President Kennedy's assassination to the University of Michigan Historical Collections.

The papers, reflecting the House minority leader's official role as one of the commission's seven members, at Ford's direction will not become available to researchers until 1971.

Robert M. Warner, director of the historical collections, said there will probably be no more than six or seven existing copies of the material contained in Ford's papers. Some of the material, he added, is unique.

Kansas City Whips Bears

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"They gave every indication tonight they could play as good as any team in the National Football League," said 72-year-old Papa George Halas after his Chicago Bears were thrashed 66-24 by the revenge-minded Kansas City Chiefs.

Halas was generous in his comments about coach Hank Stram's unbeaten American Football League champions, who cut the NFL's lead to 5-3 in the current exhibition series. "He's a great one," said Halas of flanker O. Taylor. "Len Dawson is as fine as any quarterback in the game. Buck Buchanan is an outstanding football player."

"I can only be most complimentary about Hank Stram," Halas said. "He's got a well-coached ball club."

His words were music to the ears of Kansas City players and fans who couldn't forget Green

Bay's 35-10 world title victory. This time they saw a club scoring mark.

Green Bay coach Vince Lombardi had few kind words that day for Stram's innovations—the play-action pass, the triple-stack defense, etc. Lombardi said the Chiefs showed him nothing new, but the Bears obliged him with a lot of trouble with play action. Last week, the Bears held Green Bay to one TD in an 18-0 loss.

Dawson, waived out of the NFL five years ago, didn't miss his chance to credit Stram's play-action plays, which start like a running play.

"What did it was the play-action pass," Dawson said. "We knew they were tough defensively against a stand-up passer and we knew they hadn't seen the play-action much. We had a pretty good idea it would work."

Dawson was 10-for-15 for 212 yards and four touchdowns. He triggered an amazing 32-point second period. It was 46-17 when he left.

Stram was subdued in his comments.

"We didn't talk much about revenge for the Super Bowl," Stram said, "but I wouldn't be truthful if I said we didn't have that in mind."

Taylor caught 4 passes for 130 yards, including a 70-yard bomb for the game's first TD on the last play of the first quarter, and a 29-yarder which made it 36-10 less than 15 minutes later.

Pete Beathard threw an 80-yard TD to rookie flanker Glosser Richardson and scored with perfect faking on a 2-yard bootleg. In between, little Noland Smith returned a kickoff 99 yards, as the sellout crowd of 33,041 yelled for more.

The Chiefs scored their first two TDs in a 68-second span. E. J. Holub's interception setting up the second one. Dick Gordon scored on a 102-yard kickoff return and Ralph Kurek on a 32-yard run for Chicago. Gale Sayers, ex-Kansas All American, was held to 35 yards in 10 carries.

"There's no question this gave us back a lot of respect in ourselves and our team," said end Jerry Mays, Kansas City captain.

Tech Grid Team Lacks Veterans For End Spots

(First in a series.)

HOUGHTON—"We are hurting for experience at end, not for manpower," says Bill Lucier, head football coach at Michigan Technological University.

"Among 14 end candidates due in Sept. 1 for the opening of drills," Lucier continued, "only two, Tony Adam (Milwaukee, Wis.) and Dennis Jacobs (Auburn Heights), have seen any game action. Both are sophomores. Adam started on offense last year but ended on the defensive team. Jacobs did not see much action until late in the season and all of it was on defense."

"We found a good tight end prospect during spring drills in Al Haruman (Saline) who lettered at guard and center last fall. He, too, is a sophomore. But I feel that we have a fine group of freshmen coming in and hope we can find some instant ends coming them."

Lucier indicated he will gamble with one prospect, Dane Donnicci (Iron River), an all-state quarterback during prep days. Dane is an all-around athlete and could make it at split end. Two local boys, Ron Hughes (Houghton) and Dennis Bal (Muhawick), will also be given a good try as wide flankers.

Scheduled to start out on the defensive side among the frosh corps are Charles Smith (Midland), Dale Gauth (Unionville), Stan Genbolis (Wakefield), Tom Hartfield (Grayling) and Gene Tortelli (Kingsford). Others expected to concentrate on offense include George Meadows (Hibbing, Minn.), Dan Schrauben (Orleans) and Larry Shue (Richmond).

As Lucier said, the manpower is there. Although experience is lacking, Tech should be in fine shape as far as ends are concerned when the opener against Alma College at Houghton rolls around Sept. 16. At least that's how it looks on paper at this point. A lot of ground has to be covered between Sept. 1 and Sept. 16.

Tigers Split Twin Bill; Lose Ground To Chicago

DETROIT (AP)—In football, they say a tie game is like kissing your sister — no kick to it.

But for the Tigers and the Minnesota Twins, splitting a doubleheader Wednesday night was a lot like kissing your sister. The teams split a half-game in the sizzling American League pennant race.

Detroit won the first game 10-6 behind Joe Sparma's sparkling four-hit shutout. But the Twins came back and won the second 4-3 as pitcher Jim Perry tossed a two-run and Harmon Killebrew slugged his 33rd homer.

Chicago beat New York and moved a full game ahead of Boston, which lost to Washington. Detroit and Minnesota are in a virtual tie for third, 1½ games out.

"They just beat us, but we can't worry about that," said Tigers third baseman Ed Mauer. "We've got another game coming up with them Thursday."

"I was throwing mostly fast balls, some changeups," said Sparma, who ran his record to 1-6 with the victory.

Dave Tracewski, who went five for five with just one RBI in 44 games and a .234 batting average, collected three singles and a triple and drove in three runs.

Bill Freehan doubled and Tracewski tripled him home in the seventh.

"I never hit a home run for the Tigers," Tracewski said afterward. "and I thought that one was out." The hit bounded off the left field fence.

"You've got a hard act to follow there, buddy," said Matthews, who played third in the second game. He drove in two of the Tigers' runs with a bases-loaded single.

Minnesota got one in the third inning of the second game off starter Dave Wickersham when Hank Izkierdo singled, was sacrificed to second and scored on Perry's first hit.

The Twins got three in the fifth as Killebrew led off with a home run to the 400-foot mark in left-center field. Perry's second single drove in another run and Perry scored on Rod Carew's single.

Detriot got one back in the fifth when Jim Northrup singled, went to third on Freehan's single and scored on a ground out by Jerry Lumpe.

The Tigers got two more in the seventh. Lumpe, Lenne Green and Dick McAuliffe singled the bases full. Matthews cracked a single to left, scoring Lumpe and Green.

"I lost some control of my fast ball," Wickersham said. "The last pitch I made to Perry that he hit for a single wasn't a good pitch at all. Killebrew just seven decisions. Losing pitcher Bill Gladstone's fifth inning single delivered the Cubs' run.

Matty Alou singled in the Pirates' first, stole second and scored on a single by Roberto Clemente. Manny Mota's double, an infield hit by Gene Alley and a ground out produced the deciding run in the second.

McCormick rolled to his 17th victory—tops in the league—and beat the Cardinals for the third time without a loss this season with the help of Willie Mays' 16th homer, a two-run blast in the third.

Orlando Cepeda, the league batting leader, had three of the Cards' five hits off McCormick, 17-4 on the year.

Hank Aaron and Tito Franco- na each knocked in four runs in Atlanta's comeback victory, which snapped a five-game losing string for the Braves.

Aaron drilled the first of his two two-run doubles in the seventh, sending the Braves ahead 4-3. Francoona socked a two-run homer in the first and a two-run single in the Braves' five-run eighth.

The Phillies extended New York's losing skid to seven, longest of the season for the Mets, as Johnny Briggs rapped a two-run homer and Dick Ellisworth combined with reliever Dick Hall to scatter 11 hits.

Southpaw Claude Osteen blanked Cincinnati on three hits for his 15th victory against 11 losses and West Parker drove in three runs with as many singles to pace the Dodgers' attack.

McCabe, given an early two-run lead, scattered eight hits on the way to his fourth victory in

Foreign Teams Reach Little League Semis

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—The possibility of two foreign teams meeting for the Little League World Championship loomed today for the first time in the 21-year history of the tournament for baseball's small fry.

When Linares, Mexico, rallied with two out in the last inning Wednesday to edge Northridge, Calif., 1-0, it set up two foreign teams in the semifinals for the first time since the Little League World Series began here in 1947.

West Tokyo, Japan, beat East Trail, B.C., 3-0, Tuesday on a last-inning home run by pitcher Masahiro Miyahara.

Upholding the honor of the United States in today's pair of semifinal games (2 p.m. and 5 p.m.) are Newtown - Edgmont, Pa., which meets Tokyo in the opener, and North Roseland, Chicago. North Roseland won Wednesday over the U.S. National Station, Rota, Spain, on a 1-0, no-hitter by 12-year-old Bob Stratta—the eighth no-hit, no-run game in series history.

The championship game is in TDs. Gladstone is practicing twice a day for the season opener at Gwin Sept. 2. Wichita's Glenn Meltzer led the nation in pass receiving last season, gaining 1,115 yards on 91 catches. Four resulted in TDs.

More Cultural U.P. Offerings Will Be Asked

"They have the best of both worlds. It would be good if the culture which metropolitan residents enjoy downstate could be brought to Upper Michigan," Shelden Iden, Wayne State University professor observed while conducting a 2-week artist in residence class here.

Iden, whose parents are of Russian decent, noted that downstate visitors come to Upper Michigan to enjoy the woods, waters and climate in summer. Afterwards they return downstate, where a variety of plays, musical events, art shows and other activities are available.

The Upper Peninsula hasn't as many of these. Iden said he found the area not economically deprived, but culturally - deprived.

A report on Iden's experiences with the well-attended summer art class here will be presented to the Michigan Council of Fine Arts. More such activities will be recommended by him for the Upper Peninsula.

Charge Trio In Motel Beatings

DETROIT (AP)—Two Detroit policemen and a private guard were charged Wednesday with conspiracy to beat, intimidate and abuse several persons in a motel during last month's riot.

Patrolman Robert Paille, 32, was to be arraigned today. Patrolman David Senak, 23, and private agency guard Melvin Dismukes, 24, were arraigned Wednesday, and freed on personal bond pending a hearing Tuesday.

The charges arose from an incident at the midtown Algiers Motel the morning of July 26, fourth day of one of the worst racial riots in U.S. history.

Three Negro youths were shot to death at the motel annex that morning and several others testified in court they were beaten by men in uniforms.

Patrolman Ronald August, 28, has been ordered to stand trial for first-degree murder in the death of one of the youths, Aubrey Pollard, 19, of Detroit. Paille had been charged with the murder of a second youth, Fred Temple, 18, but Recorder's (criminal) Court Judge Robert E. DeMascio dismissed the charges, ruling there was a lack of evidence to bind Paille over for trial. No charges have been filed in the death of the third victim, Carl Cooper, 17.

Paille, August and Senak are white. Dismukes is a Negro. Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan said the three were among lawmen, including State and City Police and National Guardsmen, who went to the motel to investigate reported sniper fire.

He charged, however, that the men beat eight of the persons who were "lawfully present" in the building. Cahalan also noted that the search of the building uncovered no firearms or "apparent violations of the law."

Pickle Picker Given Award

MUSKEGON (AP)—A mechanical pickle harvester, capable of picking up to 3 acres an hour and developed by Wilde Manufacturing, Inc., of Bailey, has won a regional agricultural-development-of-the-year award. The machine now competes for the state award at the Michigan State Fair which opens Friday at Detroit. Michigan's pickle industry is valued at $135 million a year.

DAVID HOSKINS, 30, (left) rural St. Cloud, Minn., leans on counter at St. Cloud jail before being placed in cell. Authorities said Hoskins admitted responsibility in the death of his wife and four small children. With Hoskins is a deputy who took part in Hoskins' transfer to jail from a hospital where he was treated for two bullet wounds. Co. Atty. Paul J. Doerner said he would ask a grand jury to investigate the deaths. (AP Wirephoto)

Key To City Ills Lies In Suburbs Claims Attorney

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cure to ills that sparked summer riots in Negro slums lies in the nation's overwhelmingly white suburbs—but suburbanites aren't likely to help right now, says the new U.S. deputy attorney general.

Warren M. Christopher, 41, the Justice Department's No. 2 man, said in an interview that white suburbanites may show their fear and anger over the Negro riots by blocking efforts to clear up big city problems.

Although he predicted suburbanites eventually will "overcome fear and prejudice," he said their initial reaction to the riots will be to reject necessary closer ties with Negro inner city neighborhoods. Suburbanites, he said, probably will reject pleas for more money needed for new schools, hospitals and transportation.

Christopher, formerly a Los Angeles lawyer, was vice chairman of a commission that investigated 1965 rioting in that city's Watts section. He also was the top-ranking Justice Department official on the scene during last month's Detroit riots.

Christopher conceded the riots may show some very short term benefits for those in Negro slums.

But, he said, "the setbacks will far outnumber the steps taken to ameliorate the situation thereafter. The fear instilled in the white community—the bitterness—is just incalculable in terms of the harm it does."

Hawaiian Tourist Crush Protested

HONOLULU (AP)—The island into which this city nestles is called Oahu. It means "gathering place" in Hawaiian. And that may be the trouble.

Last year it was the gathering place for more than 710,000 tourists and nearly 7,000 American soldiers resting and recuperating from the rigors of Vietnam.

Airline ads beckon more and more mainlanders to this island paradise. And the Hawaiian Visitor's Bureau, a nonprofit outfit promoting tourism, predicts 1.5 million visitors to Hawaii by 1970.

That is about twice the present population.

It has awakened voices for and against tourism.

One of those disturbed by the growing number of people is Robert Wenkam, a conservationist who pulls no punches when it comes to preserving the state's scenic areas. His pronouncements have brought the wrath of politicians and others. Just recently the State Senate refused to confirm his reappointment to the Land Use Commission.

Threat To Scenery
Wenkam said: "This tourism, coupled with population, could well be the greatest threat to the scenery of Hawaii, probably the primary reason most tourists come to Hawaii."

"We're already beginning to get the first symptoms of smog in Honolulu. You can find sewage floating in the water off Waikiki almost any day of the year. The highways, if they're not becoming crowded, are becoming interstate expressways. The beaches themselves are becoming crowded."

"It's not too difficult to find tourists who have been coming to Hawaii for several years who say, 'I'm not going to come anymore; it's too crowded.'"

Complaints Grow
The more tourists who come, the more the complaints about Hawaii. Robert C. Schmitt, state statistician, said one of the most frequent complaints is the lack of a Polynesian appearance. Why?

"There is a mass exodus of Hawaiians to the mainland," he said. "The Hawaiian population can't live here anymore, partly because they are a low income group."

Tourism is second only to the military in the amount of money brought into the islands. Last year the military spent $509 million. But like the military, Schmitt said, much of the tourist dollar is almost immediately siphoned off and returns to the mainland for goods and services consumed by the tourist but manufactured outside Hawaii.

Friendliness Periled

Not only is the possibility of the destruction of Hawaii's natural beauty a subject of concern, but perhaps more important is the fear that the constant influx of people will destroy the way of life—that leisurely and open, child-like friendliness called "aloha."

Both Schmitt and Wenkam expressed their concern about the "erosion of the aloha spirit." Wenkam said mass tourism causes the "whole quality of life in Hawaii to shrink, and this will reflect upon the feelings of us who live here."

Charge Troy Man Tortured Child

TROY (AP)—A Troy man has been charged with child torture after police said his 6-year-old stepson was placed in a tub of scalding water, then beaten.

Howard Daniels, 42, was freed on $5,000 bond and ordered to appear for examination Aug. 28 in Troy Municipal Court.

Daniels was arrested Monday on the complaint of a Troy physician who treated the boy, Dougall McCorquodale, for burns of the feet and arms.

The physician said he treated the boy Aug. 17, four days after the burns were inflicted.

Police said Dougall is one of two children of Mrs. Daniels by a previous marriage. The couple also has two younger children.
